

Andrea Poklar-Byrne | Vice President: After graduating with a degree in Marketing from the University of Akron, Andrea entered the Insurance Market where she has worked for the past 30 years. While she currently works for Cigna Global, a significant portion of her spare time is dedicated to serving as Vice President of the Board. Andrea is very drawn to the cause of Deepwood Foundation and is proud of all the organization does for people with developmental disabilities.