

John McNamara | Board Member: John graduated from Ohio University with his Masters in Finance and dedicated a significant portion of his career to Cloyes Gear and Products where he worked for 37 years and retired as the Executive Vice-President. Now, John is dedicating his time by serving on our Board and is very draw to the mission of Deepwood Foundation because of a personal connection to developmental disabilities.